

Gregg Paul White
1963 - 2008

On April 17, 2008, Gregg Paul White was called home after suffering an acute heart attack. Gregg was born in Mesa, Arizona but spent most of his life in Tucson, Arizona. As a child Gregg grew fascinated with 2-way radio communication, CB, and amateur radio. After graduating Canyon Del Oro High School in 1981, Gregg followed his interests and went to work for Motorola as a service technician. As he honed his skills, Gregg decided to start his own communications company and in 1994 Starcomm Communications was born. In 2006 Gregg sought to expand his opportunities and went to work for Northwest Fire District as a Communications Coordinator. Gregg spent his life surrounded by the ones he loved and lived the true meaning of family. Gregg was a loving husband to Melinda for nearly 20 years and a proud father to his son Aaron and daughter Shelby. Gregg is also survived by his parents, Norman and Shirley White, Sharon and Tom Sluman; brothers and sisters, Gary and Esther White, Kenneth and Yolanda McCloskey, Sheree and Chris Garrett, Janet and Jeremy Beatty, Chari and Chuck Demith, Heath Little, and nine nieces and nephews. We are all blessed for the time that Gregg spent with us and he will forever live in our hearts. We love you Gregg. A celebration of Gregg's life will be held at The Praise Center located at 12331 W. Picture Rocks Rd. on May 15, 2008 at 6:30 p.m.
